Teen Advisory Group Member

- Would you like to help create a new space just for teens in Billings and gain professional experience while doing it?
- Are you interested in writing, technology or digital arts?
- Do you have opinions you wish other people (even adults) would listen to?
- Do you like to create things and share them with others?

If you answered yes to one or more of the questions above, read more about a great opportunity to share your opinions and creativity to help the library create a new digital media center where teens can discover, interact with and create new technology!

Job Description

The Billings Public Library has been given a grant to plan a teen media center in the new Library. We are seeking motivated and enthusiastic high school students to serve on the Teen Advisory Group.

As a member of the Teen Advisory Group, you will have the opportunity to:

- Share your opinions during the process of designing the teen media center
- Conduct surveys of teens in Billings to see what they want in a teen media center
- Plan and assist with events for teens at different locations across the city
- Conduct outreach to teens at schools and extracurricular events

Schedule: Being a member of the Teen Advisory Group (T.A.G.) is a serious commitment. Members of the T.A.G will be active from June 1, 2013-June 30, 2014. The T.A.G. will meet at least once a month at the Library and members will be required to attend other events, including weekend and after-school hours. The average monthly time commitment will be approximately 4-10 hours.

Qualifications: Applicants to the Teen Advisory Group must be currently in grades 9th thru 12th. Applicants must show an interest in media, digital technology, arts programs, or have previous involvement in extra-curricular activities, clubs, planning groups, volunteer organizations or student council.

Application & Deadline: Interested teens should visit www.ci.billings.mt.us or www.billingsschools.org to fill out the online application. The deadline is May 9.
Questions: Please contact Jennifer or Amy, Teen and Reference Librarians, at 657-8258
