Agenda

TOPIC #1	Opportunity Bank Tax Abatement
PRESENTER	Patrick Klugman, Big Sky Economic Development (BSED)
NOTES/OUTCOME

- Klugman: overview of Opportunity Bank, financials and remodeling plans.
- Friedel: how is this project abatement? Klugman: existing building being demolished, re-construction on site.
- Mayor: valuation of old Rimview Inn? Klugman: will find information.
- Brewster: abatement based on evaluation of vacant lot? Klugman: assume Department of Revenue based on vacant lot.
- Public Comment:
- None

TOPIC #2	NorthWestern Energy Street Lights
PRESENTER	Debbie Singer, Northwestern Energy
NOTES/OUTCOME	PowerPoint presentation

- Singer: PowerPoint regarding Statewide project and City street lights. Introduces Steve Schmidt, overseeing construction.
- Schmidt: shows samples of lights, plans start in January.
- Mayor Cole: cost savings go to? Singer: $15,000 per month (total) passed back to property owners about 1 year later.
- Cromley: Commercial customer options? Singer: aggressive LED rebate program for Commercial customers.
- Bruce McCandless, City Administrator: options for some lighting districts feel over lit or under lit. Singer: open to change if notified. Call (406) 655-2550.

- Clark: average residential costs go up or down? Singer: could go up with new lights, partially offset by energy savings.
- Brown: rate case recovered and costs go away? Singer: as long as lights are there will be paying. Lower maintenance could help costs go down. Can only recover costs of actual lights.
- Ewalt: City lighting district costs ever paid off? Singer: City capital provided by property owners through SID. NW provides all capital, no money collected up front.
- Mayor Cole: when is City going to switch out? McCandless: City has been doing LED for 5 years.
- Yakawich: notification? Singer: letters will be sent, but don't know costs.
- Friedel: benefit to customers? Costs will actually be higher. Singer: street lighting, safety. LED is the way the industry is going. New standard. Energy savings. Friedel: could City take over NW lights? Singer: NW would remove lights and City could install their own.
- Public Comment:
- Leo Barsanti, 3316 Pipestone Drive, Billings, Montana: 80% is ownership fee for lights. Filed suit in 2009, original costs never go away. Would like to see a letter of support from City.
