City Administrator

The League of Women Voters of Billings invites you to join us on April 5th at 7 pm for a public information meeting, at the Elks Lodge, 934 Lewis Avenue, Billings.

Anthony Johnstone, Professor of Constitutional Law at University of Montana School of Law, will be discussing the constitutional challenges and arguments to the 2010 Patient Protection Affordable Care Act (PPACA). As you may be aware, Congress passed the PPACA including a provision that requires people to buy health insurance or pay a penalty. This provision is often called the "individual mandate." Frequently polls indicate that a majority of Americans think the "individual mandate" is unconstitutional.

Legal challenges were made to the PPACA. The Supreme Court will be hearing oral arguments on the cases and issues challenging the PPACA on March 26, 27th and 28th.

The public meeting on April 5th will address the questions of: How will the Supreme Court determine whether the PPACA is constitutional? How should it? Prof. Johnstone's talk will summarize the relevant provisions of the PPACA, explain the development of the constitutional power of Congress to pass the PPACA and the Supreme Court's construction of that power, analyze the interaction of politics and constitutional law in the legal challenges to the PPACA, discuss possible outcomes of the cases pending before the Supreme Court, and finally, discuss possible lessons for the court, the people and for Montana. His talk will be followed by a question and answer period.

An optional dinner will be served at 6 pm. Professor Johnstone begins his presentation at 7 pm. Reservations for the dinner may be made by calling Janice Munsell at 208-2058 prior to April 2. The dinner cost is $15, which includes the tip. We look forward to seeing you on the 5th.

Sincerely yours,
